

2/25/18 Study Questions:

Why do you think that God must punish sin instead of overlooking it and excusing it?

Do you ever struggle with trying to justify sin or minimize it? What are the ways that you typically use to convince yourself that you're not really "all that bad"?

What impact on the gospel do you think justifying and minimizing sin?

Think back in your life to a time where you see that God sovereignly protected you from sin. What did you feel at the time, and how do think about it now looking back?

What do you think are the best ways to protect ourselves from getting too comfortable in and around the world?

Who are you praying for right now that needs to receive God's forgiveness and grace?

What are the potential places in your life that could dig deep roots of sin if you aren't careful?
