

Application Questions

Where or how do you feel the brokenness of the world the most?

Because the Spirit is our (first fruits or down payment of a finished work) we can have hope that this world will not be like this forever. What Scriptures can you (do you) use to help keep your mind for the prize that is ahead. (Rev. 21)

What are the avenues that the Spirit is able to use in comforting you during difficult times? How do you allow the Spirit to speak to you?

The Spirit prays for us when we can not pray ourselves. What has been the most difficult season in your life to pray through?

What are the specific things that you find it very hard to pray for or in, in your life?

What is the current situation that you find it almost impossible to pray “your will be done”?

What are some of the times that you can remind yourself and encourage the group in that God had greater plans than you had yourself?

Looking back on your life, what are some of the difficult situations that you have seen God work together for good?

What are your “go-to” verses in times of trouble? How do you remind yourself that God is good and that He loves you?