

COMMITTED TO SHARING MY TIME, RESOURCES, AND GIFTS TOWARD THE MISSION AND MINISTRIES OF EXCHANGE

Small Group Questions

1. Understanding that God owns everything and we manage it, what are some practical ways we can encourage one another to live with a “non-ownership” mindset?
2. After reading through the parable of the talents again, Matthew 25:14-30, are there areas in your life in which you have been simply burying your time, talent, or treasures?
3. As brothers and sisters in Christ, what are some ways we can hold one another accountable for the stewardship of our time, talents, and treasures?
4. How are you using your time to glorify the King? What are some steps you can take to redeem your time in the next week?
5. Thinking through how God has uniquely equipped you, how might you be able to use your giftings to minister to those in your circles?
6. Do you feel you have fully trusted God with your finances? If not, what are some specific areas holding you back that may need to be confessed?