I COMMIT TO ENGAGING MY CIRCLES AS A FULL-TIME MINISTER

- 1) If you had to choose one of these, which would be the most difficult for you? Why is that?
- 2) What might community look like if there was no commitment to each one of these? (Actually go through the list and discuss)
- 3) Which of these commitments did you learn about most throughout this series? What was something that stuck out to you that you didn't know or lean in to before?
- 4) Where do you think your story can come along side of other to encourage them in on of these? (Has God radically transformed your thinking in one of these and given you experience to share with the group?)
- 5) What questions do you still have about these commitments?
