

READ MATTHEW 2

- Why do you think Herod was automatically threatened and terrified about a little child who was called "king"?
- If Kingship implies a protector and conqueror, how does Christ fulfill this position of King?
 - What other passages (besides II Timothy 1:10) can you think of that give us this promise?
 - What implications does Christ's actions of protector and conqueror have in your life?
- As King, Jesus has absolute authority over all... How does this truth give you comfort, and how does this truth challenge your faith?
- As King, Jesus has the absolute authority to give mercy. How does this truth give you a weapon against the enemy?
