

Read John 4:1-42

1. Have you ever thought about the comparison of Nicodemus and the Samaritan Woman? What comparisons and similarities do you see?
2. What do these interactions teach you about Jesus?
3. Jesus tells the woman at the well that if she only realized who he is, she would be asking for something from him. In other words, a correct understanding of Jesus will determine what we ask of him. What truth about Jesus do you need to remember in your prayer life at the moment?
4. This woman is obviously seeking fulfillment in a way that relationship after relationship can not fulfill. In what ways are you tempted to seek fulfillment? What are you often tempted to believe that " _____", will make you happy?
5. What are your thoughts of Jesus bringing up this woman's shame? Though it was uncomfortable, she comes out of that shame with Him. How can you learn to trust Jesus with the darkest corners of your heart through this story?
