

Read John 6:1-25

1. What are the types of things in your life that you sometimes wonder if God cares about?
2. When you read that Jesus had compassion on the people for being hungry, how does that effect your thoughts about God's feelings about your circumstance?
3. How do you justify the truth that God has compassion for you and your circumstance, while the reality is also that nothing has changed yet?
4. The disciples faith may not have prevented them from believing Jesus if he had of told them what he was going to do- but it prevented them from believing he was going to do something. How do we train ourselves to eagerly anticipate what Christ might do in and for our needs?
 1. -Read Psalm 5:3
5. It's clear through the text that Jesus asks Philip a question only to test him. What do you think the ways are right now that the Lord may be testing you in?
6. Reading further- Jesus walks on the water. And, in Mark's account (Mark 6:47), we're told that he intended to pass by them. Why do you think that was?
7. What are the places in your life that Jesus may be waiting for you to call to him for?
