THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

Read John 13:1-20

Discussion Questions:

How can we cultivate true humility like Jesus demonstrated, rather than the 'fake humility' described by David Brooks?

In what ways might we, like Judas, be in close proximity to Jesus without having a genuine relationship with Him?

How does Jesus washing the disciples' feet, including Judas', challenge our understanding of love and service towards those who wrong us?

What are some practical ways we can 'go low' and serve others in our daily lives, even when it's uncomfortable or inconvenient?

How does Peter's initial refusal to let Jesus wash his feet reflect our own struggles with pride and self-sufficiency in our spiritual lives?

In what areas of our lives might we be resisting Jesus' cleansing work, and why?

How can we balance the assurance of being 'completely clean' through Christ with the need for ongoing confession and accountability?

What does it mean to truly repent and believe, beyond simply reciting a prayer or participating in religious activities?

How can we discern whether we have a genuine relationship with Jesus versus mere proximity to religious practices?

In what ways can we remind ourselves and others of the complete cleansing we have in Christ when faced with guilt or shame from our past?
